

Award-winners MONSTRA 2010

Lisbon Animated Film Festival Several Nac., 2007-09, total dur. 71 min

Born in 2000, Monstra is currently an important reference in the national and international level. Celebrating artistic transversality, the festival offers competitive and non-competitive screenings, masterclasses, exhibitions and workshops. The programme now presented is a selection of the award-winners from this year's edition.

Der Da Vinci Timecode by Gil Alkabetz

DE, 2009, 3' min. Special Jury's Prize

One picture is taken apart in order to create an animated film from its fragments. Different parts of this one picture, based on similar forms, allow us to discover secret movements.

French Roast by Fabrice O. Joubert

FR, 2008, 8' 15 min. Onda Curta Awards

In a fancy Parisian Café, an uptight businessman is about to pay the check when he realizes that he's lost his wallet. To save time he decides to order more coffee... A character driven short animated film about deceptive appearances.

Cândido by Zepe (José Pedro Cavalheiro)

PT, 2007, 11 min. Best Portuguese Short Film

Cândido has never loved. Manipulation is his favourite game.

Never Drive a Car When You're Dead

by Gregor Dashuber. DE, 2009, 10 min. Best Student Film

The awkward hero stumbles over a long forgotten piano. Music leads him from his ruddy existence out into the city life. He then plays a last funeral march to all the deadbeat figures on the sidewalk.

Divers in the Rain by Priit Pärn e Olga Pärn. EE, 2009, 11 min.

Grand Prize RTP 2 | MONSTRA 2010 for Best Short/ Best Soundtrack

This a story about an everyday diver and a night dentist. Their kisses are always goodbye kisses. He is a diver and has to dive. She is tired and has to sleep. But there is no silent place in her dreams. And a big ship is sinking slowly in the rain.

The Great Task of Mr. Poulet by Andreia Costa

PT, 2009, 0' 50 min. Best Portuguese Student Film

An eventful workday for a gentleman with great responsibilities.

Joseph's Snails by Sophie Roze

FR, 2009, 12 min. Best Film for Young Audience

Joseph is a shy, introverted little boy who collects snails. One day he gets swallowed up by his own tummy-button and discovers the disturbing world of the "nacel-gazers", people who, by only communicating with their navel, curl in on themselves and turn into snails...

Log Jam by Alexey Alexeev

HU, 2008, 2 min. Best TV Series

Three animals are playing music until being interrupted by a hunter with his dog...